

- A city event guide
- A local music guide
- Instagram gig guides (check out @gigsster.melb for Naarm gigs)

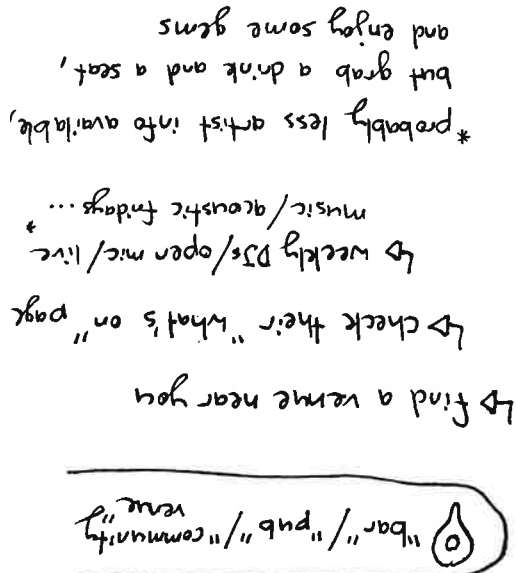

let someone do the research for you!

"your city" + "live music" / "gigs" / "free gigs"

Method 1

Method 2

Method 3

- YOU WILL NEED:
- An open heart (and ears)
  - A willingness to follow link rabbit holes
  - $0 - $30 for tix (or $14 for a beer at a free gig)
  - Earplugs (if you still want to hear by 30)(CI use Earpeace)
  - Cash for merch (musos are poor. Buy a shirt.)

You like live music!
You've been to a festival,
paid too much for concerts

but here's how you

SUPPORT LOCAL BANDS!

STEP 1: FIND A GIG

Your guide to getting into the local gig scene

aka

SUPPORT LOCAL BANDS

I went to a gig... what's next?

Did you find an artist you liked? Check out their past gigs!

other gigging local bands! - new venues!

Venue hop, genre hop, build your local scene knowledge, and LISTEN TO LOCAL BANDS!

... my friends don't want to come with me!!

Here are your magic words:

Who are you here to see?

say that to the person next to you. You can do it. I believe in you.

Have fun gigging!